IV Global Conference on the Sustained Eradication of Child Labour

The main goal of the Conference is to strengthen the global commitment to accelerate the sustained eradication of child labour in all its forms by 2025.

For this purpose, the Government of Argentina, with the support of the International Labour Organization, invites governments, workers and employers' organizations', and civil society representatives to discuss global strategies that allow for an acceleration on the eradication of child labour in all its forms, towards the achievement of goals 8.5, 8.6 and 8.7 of the Sustainable Development Goals; in terms of child labour, forced labour and the generation of quality youth employment.

The Global Conference will provide a platform for the Member States of the United Nations and the ILO, workers 'and employers' organizations, civil society, and partnerships, to share experiences and lessons learned from innovative and successful policies, programs, practices and intervention models.
