

TAKE THIS YEAR'S OVERSEAS TRIP IN AUSTRALIA!

The New World of Work, Organisations and Employment
15th International Industrial Relations Association (IIRA) World Congress
24-27 August 2009
Sydney Convention Centre

The congress will open with a forum on The Global Financial Crisis and its Implications for Employment Relations around the World, with keynote speakers from the USA, Europe, Asia and Latin America. These will include Prof. Tom Kochan, MIT and Adviser to President Obama, Dr Raymond Torres, ILO, Dr Wonduck Kim, Samsung Corporation and Professor Helio Zylberstajn, President, Brazilian Industrial Relations Association

Register for the IIRA World Congress Register online now:
www.iceaustralia.com/iira2009

Early Bird rates apply until 31 March 2009

Keynote speakers include:

- Juan Somavia, Director General of the International Labour Organization
- Julia Gillard, Deputy Prime Minister of Australia
- Peter Anderson, Australian Chamber of Commerce and Industry
- Heather Ridout, The Australian Industry Group
- Sharan Burrow and Jeff Lawrence, Australian Council of Trade Unions
- Peter Wilson, President, Australian Human Resources Institute
- Thomas Kochan, Sloan School of Management, MIT, USA
- Lucio Baccaro, University of Geneva, Switzerland
- Carola Frege, London School of Economics, United Kingdom
- Anil Verma, School of Management, University of Toronto, Canada

More than 500 papers have been submitted by practitioners, policy makers and academic experts in Industrial Relations, Human Resources and Employment Relations from over 40 countries around the world.

The IIRA World Congress is held only once every 3 years and has not been held in Australia since 1992. More than 1000 participants are expected to attend.