

ILO Global Business Network on Forced Labour First Annual Meeting

Details:

- Date: 21st of October 2019
- Time: 12:30 – 17:30
- Location: Hilton Hotel, Berlin, Germany

Meeting overview:

The International Labour Organization's (ILO) Global Business Network on Forced Labour offers a forum for collaboration, convened by the ILO, where business of all sizes and sectors as well as employer and business membership organizations come together behind a common objective of leveraging comparative advantages and collective action towards the eradication of forced labour.

The ILO GBNFL promotes an inclusive approach by:

- Connecting actors across supply chains to support collaborative, bottom-up approaches
- Bringing actors together to support collective action and drive scale
- Providing accessible information, data, and resources on forced labour
- Supporting broad-based, local responses that address the structural issues undermining progress on eradication of forced labour

On the 21st of October 2019, the ILO Global Business Network on Forced Labour will organize its first annual meeting to bring together members and interested stakeholders. The event will engage participants on achieving coordination and collaboration, and focus on innovations that could realize scale and promote bottom-up engagement. Overall, the event will reinforce the focus on collective action towards eradication of forced labour.

Meeting objectives:

- Support collective business engagement on coordination and collaboration to eradicate forced labour and promote fair recruitment
- Discuss innovative tools and approaches that support scale and promote bottom-up momentum (focusing on smaller enterprises)
- Provide an update on the ILO Global Business Network on Forced Labour
