Informal Tripartite Consultations on the Working Methods of the CAS

Dear Members,

The next Informal Tripartite Consultations on the Working Methods of the Committee on the Application of Standards will be held on Saturday, 5 November 2016, from 2.00 to 5.00 p.m., at the ILO Headquarters in Geneva.

A proposed agenda and a background note prepared by the Office to facilitate the discussions can be found in the side panel.

The following issues will be discussed during the meeting:

- Review of the functioning of the CAS in June 2016 and possible further suggestions for improvement to the functioning of the CAS (section I of the Background note)
- The preparation, adoption and follow-up of conclusions (section II of the Background note)
- The discussion of the General Survey (section III of the Background note)
- The issue of the participation in these informal tripartite consultations (section IV of the Background note)
- Any other matters.

As you may know, participation in these informal tripartite consultations has been based in the past on the following arrangement: 9 Employer representatives, 9 Worker representatives and 9 Government representatives. These consultations may also be attended by observers.

Sonia Regenbogen will be the Employers’ spokesperson. We would be grateful if you could inform us of your availability to participate in this meeting by Monday, 31 October 2016.

Yours sincerely,

Maria Paz Anzorreguy
Senior Adviser
